

Extended Deadline for WACBE World Congress on Bioengineering 2013

On request we extended the deadline for submission of abstracts to 1st, June, 2013. The World Association for Chinese Biomedical Engineers(WACBE) will hold its 6th WACBE World Congress on Bioengineering 2013 in Beijing, China, from 5 to 8 August 2013, hosted by Beihang University and Chinese Society of Biomedical Engineering with supports from many other institutions and professional societies.

The association organizes biannual World Congresses. The first congress was held at Taipei in December 2002. The second was held at Beijing in September 2004; the third was held at Bangkok in July 2007; the fourth was held at Hong Kong in July 2009, and the fifth was held at Tainan in August 2011. All the five congresses brought together many biomedical engineers from all over the world to share their experiences and to exchange views on the future development of biomedical engineering. All participants attending the WACBE World Congress on Bioengineering 2013 are invited to submit abstracts in any field of bioengineering.

Selected abstracts with solid scientific work will be invited to submit full papers and published after peer-review process on the chosen journals:

Medical Engineering and Physics (SCI)
Journal of Mechanics in Medicine and Biology (SCI)
Science China Life Sciences (SCI)
Journal of Medical and Biological Engineering (SCI)
Journal of Medical Imaging and Health Informatics

You are required to fill in the abstract submission form attached. Please send your abstract and submission form in Word format to Congress Secretariat through the email: wacbe2013@buaa.edu.cn. Meanwhile, we appreciate your effort for helping us pass this information to your colleagues and encourage them to submit. Any question, please feel free to contact us.
